Starkey-Colony Foxburg Fest Shootout Tees Off at Historic Foxburg Golf Course on June 14th

Foxburg, PA - (March 11, 2024) – KDKA's The Fan 93.7 personalities Joe Starkey and Jim Colony will headline the 2024 Starkey-Colony Foxburg Fest Shootout, a fundraising golf tournament benefiting the restoration and preservation of the historic Foxburg Golf Course. The event will be held on Friday, June 14th, 2024, at the course located in Foxburg, Clarion County, Pennsylvania.

Starkey and Colony will each captain a team for a Ryder Cup format. A total of 48 golfers will fill the field. This is an open tournament, registration begins April 1, 2024. Notable “sports figures” are expected in the field of 48. The event will be filled with hole challenges, prizes, food, and tee gifts for each participant. This unique event is sure to provide an exciting atmosphere and is open to the public.

Preserving a Historic Gem

The Foxburg Golf Course is the oldest continuously operating course in the United States, holding a rich history dating back to 1887. Entering its 137th year, the Foxburg Golf Preservation organization is dedicated to ensuring its legacy for future generations. The Shootout proceeds will directly support restoration and preservation efforts, benefiting the local community, Clarion County, Western Pennsylvania, and the entire Commonwealth.
